MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff seeks preliminary approval of a class action Settlement Agreement and Release (the “Settlement Agreement”) and an order certifying a class for the purposes of a class-wide settlement (the “Settlement Class”). This Settlement Agreement is intended to resolve and settle the “Released Claims” (as described in Section III.I, infra) in this matter upon and subject to the terms and conditions contained therein. As this Court is aware, this matter involves Mr. Grider’s allegations that CCCS violated the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (“TCPA”) and the Nevada Deceptive Trade Practices Act (“NDTPA”) by calling him and the putative class members on their cellular telephones without their prior express consent. The parties, after vigorously litigating the matter for two years, have determined that settlement is in the best interests of all involved, including the putative class members. As detailed below, class certification—for the purposes of settlement—is appropriate as the parties’ proposed Settlement Agreement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

1       The proposed Settlement Agreement provides for a settlement of up to eight million dollars
 2 ($8,000,000.00) and provides a substantial financial benefit to the Settlement Class Members: a pro rata
 3 award that may be as high as fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500.00)—the maximum amount of damages
 4 allowed under the TCPA—but is unlikely to be less than two hundred dollars ($200.00). In return,
 5 Plaintiff, on behalf of the proposed Settlement Class, will dismiss this matter and the Settlement Class
 6 will unconditionally release and discharge CCCS, Dollar Loan Center, LLC (“DLC Nevada”), and DLC
 7 Empire, LLC (“DLC Empire”) from all claims relating to this matter.

8       While the parties are confident of their relative positions on the merits and class certification, the 9 parties have determined that the proposed Settlement Agreement is fair, adequate, reasonable, and in the 10 best interests of all involved. Mr. Grider believes that the Settlement Agreement is appropriate because 11 he recognizes the expense and amount of time required to continue to pursue the matter, as well as the 12 uncertainty, risk, and difficulties of proof inherent in prosecuting such claims. Similarly, CCCS, also 13 facing risks and uncertainties, has determined that it is desirable to settle this matter as set forth in the 14 Settlement Agreement. The proposed Settlement Agreement satisfies all of the criteria for preliminary 15 approval.

16       Accordingly, the Plaintiff moves the Court for an order preliminarily approving the proposed 17 Settlement Agreement, provisionally certifying the Settlement Class pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil 18 Procedure 23(b)(3) for settlement purposes, directing dissemination of class notice, and scheduling a 19 Final Approval Hearing. The proposed Settlement Agreement, proposed class notices, proposed 20 Preliminary Approval Order, and a proposed Final Approval Order are attached hereto.

21           II.       FACTUAL BACKGROUND AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

22       A.       The Class Action Complaint.

23       On September 20, 2013, Mr. Grider filed a Complaint against CCCS, DLC Nevada, and DLC
 24 Empire (collectively, the “Defendants”), seeking appointment as the class representative for a class of 25 individuals who received telephone calls from CCCS on their cellular telephones in violation of the 26 TCPA. (See generally ECF No. 1, Compl.)

27       Mr. Grider asserted the following claims against CCCS: (1) negligently violating the TCPA by 28 calling him on his cellular telephone utilizing an ATDS; (2) willfully violating the TCPA by calling him

1 on his cellular telephone utilizing an ATDS; and, (3) violating the NDTPA by engaging in a deceptive
 2 trade practice through violating “a . . . federal statute or regulation relating to the sale or lease of goods
 3 or services.” (Id. ¶¶ 204-17.)<sup>1</sup>

4 Mr. Grider alleged a direct claim against DLC Nevada for engaging in a deceptive trade practice 5 by knowingly making a false representation in a transaction and by failing “to disclose a material fact in 6 connection with the sale or lease of goods or services.” (Id. ¶¶ 199-203, 213-17.) Mr. Grider also 7 alleged that DLC Nevada is liable for CCCS’s violations of the TCPA and NDTPA under principles of 8 secondary liability, vicariously liability, enterprise liability, and agency law. (Id. ¶¶ 58-61, 71-75.)

9 Mr. Grider alleged that DLC Empire is liable for (i) CCCS’s violations of the TCPA and 10 NDTPA, and (ii) DLC Nevada’s violations of the NDTPA, under principles of secondary liability, 11 vicarious liability, enterprise liability, and agency law. (Id. ¶¶ 58-61, 71-75.)

12 B. The Parties Conduct Discovery; Defendants file Motions for Summary Judgment.

13 On October 15, 2013, the Defendants filed separate Motions for Summary Judgment. (See
 14 generally ECF No. 15, DLC Empire’s Motion for Summary Judgment; ECF No. 16, DLC Nevada’s
 15 Motion for Summary Judgment; ECF No. 17, CCCS’s Motion for Summary Judgment.) The Court 16 preliminarily struck the Motions for Summary Judgment and numerous other related filings. (See 17 generally ECF No. 99, Order.) The Defendants then filed a consolidated Motion for Summary
 18 Judgment, which the Court denied. (See generally ECF No. 103, Order.) Shortly thereafter, the 19 Defendants filed separate Answers to the Complaint. (See ECF No. 130, DLC Nevada’s Answer; ECF
 20 No. 131, DLC Empire’s Answer; ECF No. 132, CCCS’s Answer.)

21 During the pendency of the initial Motions for Summary Judgment, the parties began conducting
 22 substantial merits and class discovery. (Exhibit 6, Decl. Dennis L. Kennedy [“Kennedy Decl.”], ¶ 2.)

23 C. Mr. Grider Files a Motion for Class Certification; the Court Sets an Evidentiary Hearing.

24 On August 4, 2014, Mr. Grider filed his Motion for Class Certification. (See generally ECF No.
 25 126.) On October 28, 2014, the Court ordered that an Evidentiary Hearing be held on Mr. Grider’s

27 <sup>1</sup> See NRS 598.0915(15); NRS 598.0923(2)-(3).
 28

1 Motion for Class Certification in order to address four primary questions:

- 2     1. What, if any, objective criteria can be used to identify class members where 3       the phone number provided has been reassigned? If no satisfactory objective 4       criteria are available, can the class be defined to avoid this problem?
- 5     2. Precisely what consent was given via the loan documents, and does this 6       consent vary from loan to loan? If consent varies, how does this impact 7       commonality? . . .
- 6     3. Does DLC employ multiple independent systems in making calls, or are all 7       calls generated by various facets of the same integrated system? If multiple 8       independent systems are used, can the class be defined to avoid this 9       commonality problem?
- 9     4. Did Grider's testimony actually suggest that he provided consent for DLC's 10      contact with him in light of Mr. Aviles' multiple declarations, defeating 10      typicality? . . .

11 (ECF No. 168, Order, at 8:11 - 9:4.)

12 D. The Parties Engage in Settlement Discussions and Three Lengthy Mediations.

13     The parties continued to conduct discovery leading up to the evidentiary hearing on Mr. Grider's 14 Motion for Class Certification. (Exhibit 6, Kennedy Decl. ¶ 2.) During this process, the parties were 15 simultaneously engaging in settlement discussions. (Id. ¶ 3.) On January 6, 2015, the parties
16 participated in mediation with the Honorable Lawrence Leavitt (Ret.). (Id. ¶ 4.) Although the parties
17 made substantial progress toward a settlement, they were unable to reach a resolution. (Id.)

18     One day prior to the evidentiary hearing, the parties agreed on the general framework of a
19 settlement agreement. (Id. ¶ 5.) However, the parties had difficulties reaching agreement on certain 20 terms of the Settlement Agreement and requested that the Court order the parties to engage in a Judicial 21 Settlement Conference with the Honorable Carl W. Hoffman—the Magistrate Judge assigned to the 22 Matter. (Id.) On June 19, 2015, the parties attended a Judicial Settlement Conference with Magistrate
23 Judge Hoffman and were able to reach an agreement as to the essential terms of a settlement. (Id. ¶ 6.)
24 The parties attempted to reduce their agreement to a fully integrated settlement agreement and release
25 but still were at an impasse as to one term—the definition of the claim amount. (Id. ¶ 7.) On September
26 22, 2015, the parties again attended a Judicial Settlement Conference with Magistrate Judge Hoffman
27 and were able to reach an agreement as to the the definition of the claim amount. (Id. ¶ 8.) The parties
28 were then able to finalize and execute the Settlement Agreement. (Id.)

1    E. The Case Caption is Amended by the Magistrate Judge to Reflect the Current Parties.

2       On November 2, 2015, in anticipation of the class action settlement, the parties stipulated, and
3       Magistrate Judge Hoffman ordered, that this matter's title and case caption be amended as Mr. Grider is 4       now the only remaining plaintiff in the case and five other defendants had been dismissed from the case.
5       Accordingly, Magistrate Judge Hoffman ordered this matter to be titled and captioned as follows:

6                  RONALD GRIDER, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated;

7                  Plaintiff,

8                  vs.

9                  CLARK COUNTY COLLECTION SERVICE, LLC, a Nevada limited-liability
10          company; DOLLAR LOAN CENTER, LLC, a Nevada limited-liability company;
11          and DLC EMPIRE, LLC, a South Dakota limited-liability company,

12                  Defendants.

13          (ECF No. 221, Stipulation and Order to Amend Case Caption.)

14          III. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

15          A. The Settlement Class.

16          Plaintiff proposes that the Court certify a class for purposes of settlement (the "Settlement
17          Class"). Membership in the Settlement Class ("Settlement Class Members") is defined as follows:

18          "Settlement Class Members" or "Settlement Class" shall mean all natural persons,
19          within the United States, who were called by CCCS, on their cellular telephone—
20          excluding calls that were initiated by manually dialing via a desktop telephone—
21          between September 20, 2009 and September 20, 2013 (the "Class Period") as a
22          result of having their telephone number listed by a customer of DLC Nevada as a
23          "Reference" on a credit application. Settlement Class Members do not include 24          recipients of a single telephone call received as a result of a reassigned telephone
25          number, as defined by the Federal Communications Commission in its TCPA
26          Omnibus Declaratory Ruling and Order No. 15-72 (July 18, 2015). Also 27          excluded from the class are Defendants, any parent companies, affiliates, 28          subsidiaries or any employees thereof, and any entities in which any of such 29          companies has a controlling interest; the Judge or Magistrate Judge to whom the 30          Action is assigned and any member of those Judges' immediate families; as well
31          as all persons who validly request exclusion from the Class.

32          (Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, § I.J.)

33          The "Class Period" is the period of time during which CCCS is alleged to have placed the 34          unlawful telephone calls via an automatic telephone dialing system ("ATDS"), between September 20, 35          2009 and September 20, 2013. (Id.) As part of the settlement process, CCCS shall provide to the

1 Claims Administrator, a file, in an electronically searchable and readable format, containing the 2 Settlement Class Members' names and last known cellular phone numbers. (Id. § IV.)

3 CCCS believes that the proposed Settlement Class consists of approximately 18,000 persons.

4 (Id.) In order to determine the actual number of Settlement Class Members, each telephone number
 5 must be extracted from CCCS's records, and all non-cellular phone numbers excluded. (See id.) Upon
 6 receiving notification from the Claims Administrator, each Settlement Class Member who makes a
 7 timely, valid, and approved claim (an "Approved Claim.") shall be entitled to one (1) (and only one)
 8 claim per cellular telephone number called, regardless of the number of calls received by each cellular
 9 telephone number. (Id. § VI.E.)

10 B. The Settlement Fund.

11 Under the Settlement Agreement, the maximum amount payable by CCCS in the settlement of 12 this matter is $8,000,000.00 (the "Total Settlement Pool"). (Id. § VI.A.1.) The Total Settlement Pool is 13 composed of two parts: (1) a "Minimum Settlement Fund;" and (2) a "Residual Settlement Fund." (Id.
 14 §§ VI.A.2-3.) All funds will be maintained in an interest bearing account in a bank located in Clark
 15 County, Nevada. (Id. § VI.B.)

16 The "Minimum Settlement Fund" is four million one hundred forty thousand dollars 17 ($4,140,000.00), and is composed of two subparts: (a) attorneys' fees, costs and expenses totaling two 18 million six hundred forty thousand dollars ($2,640,000.00); and (b) a minimum payment (the "Minimum 19 Payment") by CCCS of one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000.00). (Id. § VI.A.2.) The 20 Minimum Payment consists of: (i) claims administration costs, estimated to be one hundred thousand
 21 dollars ($100,000.00); (ii) the class representative's incentive award of ten thousand dollars
 22 ($10,000.00); and (iii) the "Minimum Aggregate Payout," which is the Minimum Payment less
 23 administration costs and the class representative's incentive award. (Id.)

24 The Residual Settlement Fund is the difference between the Total Settlement Pool
 25 ($8,000,000.00) less the Initial Settlement Fund ($4,140,000.00). (Id. § VI.A.3.) The amount of the 26 Residual Settlement Fund shall not exceed Three Million Eight Hundred Sixty Thousand Dollars
 27 ($3,860,000.00). (Id.)

 LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89148
 PHONE (702) 562-8820

1   C. The Bank Account.

2       Within thirty (30) days following the Preliminary Approval, the Claims Administrator shall open
 3       an interest bearing account at a federally insured depository bank in Clark County, Nevada, for the 4       purpose of administering the settlement of this matter. (Id. § VI.B.) The Claims Administrator will 5       advise the parties of the name of the bank and the account number (the “Bank Account”). (Id.) All
 6       interest earned on any amounts in the Bank Account shall become part of the Settlement Fund for all
 7       purposes and credited against any amounts owed by CCCS pursuant to this Settlement. (Id.) Monthly
 8       statements for the Bank Account shall be provided by the Claims Administrator to counsel for Plaintiff
 9       and CCCS. (Id.)

10   D. Funding the Initial Settlement Fund.

11       Within thirty (30) days following receipt of the name of the bank and the account number from 12       the Claims Administrator, CCCS will deposit the sum of six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000.00)
 13       into the Bank Account (the “Initial Deposit”). (Id. § VI.C.1.) On the first day of the first full month
 14       following the Initial Deposit ($600,000.00), and on the first day of each of the nineteen (19) consecutive 15       succeeding months—a total of twenty (20) consecutive months—CCCS shall deposit in the Bank
 16       Account the sum of One Hundred Seventy-Seven Thousand Dollars ($177,000.00), bringing the total
 17       deposits in the Bank Account to Three Million Five Hundred Forty Thousand Dollars ($3,540,000.00).
 18       (Id. § VI.C.2.) The Initial Deposit ($600,000.00) and the 20 monthly payments of $177,000.00
 19       ($3,540,000.00) comprise the Minimum Settlement Fund ($4,140,000.00). (Id. § VI.C.3.)

20   E. Funding the Residual Settlement Fund.

21       In the event that the aggregate amount of the Approved Claims exceeds the Minimum Aggregate
 22       Payout, CCCS will be required to fund all or part of the Residual Settlement Fund ($3,860,000.00) as 23       needed in order to pay the amount of the Approved Claims. (Id. § VI.F.) If, in the judgment of the 24       Claims Administrator, it appears—based upon the number of valid claims received—that the Minimum
 25       Aggregate Payout ($1,390,000.00) will be insufficient to satisfy the Approved Claims, then the Claims
 26       Administrator shall notify CCCS that the Residual Settlement Fund must be accessed, and all or part of 27       the Residual Settlement Fund must then be deposited by CCCS into the Bank Account, to the extent 28       needed to satisfy the remaining claims. (Id.) (The Claims Administrator may give more than one such

1 notice.) (Id.) CCCS shall have ninety (90) days from the Claims Administrator's notification to make
 2 such deposit, unless CCCS challenges the Claims Administrator's proposed assessment. (Id.)

3 CCCS may challenge the Claims Administrator's proposed assessment to the Magistrate Judge
 4 assigned to this matter. (Id.) Should the proposed assessment be deemed appropriate by the Magistrate
 5 Judge, CCCS shall have ninety (90) days from the Magistrate Judge's order to make such deposit. (Id.)
 6 If, in the judgment of the Claims Administrator, it becomes necessary to pay valid claims before CCCS
 7 makes the deposit from the Residual Settlement Fund, the Claims Administrator may use those monies
 8 from the Initial Settlement Fund which had been set aside as Fees and Costs ($2,640,000.00), which 9 monies shall then be replenished when funds from the Residual Settlement Fund are received. (Id.)

10 In the event that the number of Approved Claims, multiplied by seventy dollars ($70.00) exceeds 11 the Claims Pool, the amount paid for each Approved Claim shall decrease on a pro rata basis until the 12 sum of $5,250,000.00 is reached, and no further amounts will be owed to the Class Members. (Id.)

13 F. Distribution of the Settlement Fund.

14 The Claims Administrator shall distribute the funds in the Bank Account in the following order
 15 and within the time period set forth with respect to each such payment: (a) First, no later than thirty (30)
 16 days after the Initial Deposit, the Claims Administrator shall have $100,000.00 to be held in trust for any 17 costs of administration; (b) Second, no later than thirty (30) days after the Effective Date,<sup>2</sup> the Claims
 18 Administrator shall pay to the Class Representative any incentive award ordered by the Court, as 19 described in Section III.N; (c) Third, no later than thirty (30) days after the Effective Date, the Claims
 20 Administrator shall pay by check (the "Settlement Checks") to Settlement Class Members their 21 Approved Claims pursuant to Section III.F and an initial cy pres award (if any); (d) Fourth, no later than 22 thirty (30) days after the Effective Date, the Claims Administrator shall pay to Bailey♦Kennedy and 23 Haines & Krieger ("Class Counsel") the award of attorney's fees, costs, or expenses ordered by the

 26 As detailed in the Settlement Agreement, the "Effective Date" means "the date of which all 27 appellate and or subsequent proceedings are ended, and/or the time for appeal or further appeal from a
 28 final judgment and order of dismissal with prejudice in the Action . . . has passed, such that the Final Judgment and Order of Dismissal with Prejudice takes effect, in its entirety." (Id. § VI.I.)

1 Court;<sup>3</sup> (f) Finally, two-hundred ten (210) days after the date on which the last Settlement Check was
 2 issued, the Claims Administrator shall pay any amounts remaining, if any, to the cy pres recipient. (Id. §
 3 VI.D-H.)

4 G. Class Notice.

5 Notice will be given to the Class by direct mail, a question & answer notice on the settlement
 6 website, and by publication of notice throughout the State of Nevada. (Id. § VII.C.)

7 1. *Direct Mail Notices.

8 The Claims Administrator will mail individual class notice via first-class mail in postcard-style
 9 form (“Direct Mail Notices”) with a unique Claim Identification Number to all of the estimated persons
 10 in the Settlement Class. (Id. § VII.C.1; see also Exhibit 3, Direct Mail Notice.) The Direct Mail Notice
 11 will summarize the Settlement Agreement, provide instruction on how to make a claim and opt-out or 12 object, and direct the recipient to a toll-free telephone number and the Settlement Website, where the 13 recipient may learn the details of the Settlement Agreement. (Compare Exhibit 3, Direct Mail Notice, 14 with Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, §§ VII.C.3-4.)

15 In order to facilitate the mailing of the Direct Mail Notices, the CCCS will provide the Claims
 16 Administrator with relevant records of the cellular phone number CCCS called during the Claims
 17 Period, in an electronically searchable and readable format. (Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, § 18 VII.C.1.) The Claims Administrator will review the cellular phone information provided by CCCS and 19 will do what it believes is necessary to identify class members’ most current addresses without calling or 20 contacting DLC debtors or customers. (Id.) Any addresses that are found not to be current or which are 21 otherwise inaccurate during the notice and claims process shall be provided upon request to Class
 22 Counsel and Counsel for CCCS. (Id.) Any mail that is returned undeliverable by the U.S. Post Office
 23 (RUM) shall be sent again if a new address is found. (Id.) Such re-mails shall be completed
 24 immediately upon receipt of the RUM so that such recipients of the new notice shall have a minimum of 25 thirty (30) days to make a claim, i.e. mailed again within ninety (90) days of the original mailing. (Id.)

26 <sup>3</sup> The parties acknowledge that the Bank Account will not be fully funded to pay all the Attorney’s
 27 fees at once and that Attorney’s Fees will be paid as the ongoing deposits to the Bank Account by CCCS 28 are made.

1           2. Q&A Notice on Settlement Website.

2           A website shall be created and used for purposes of the Settlement Agreement (the “Settlement
 3 Website”). (Id. § VII.C.3.) The Settlement Website will answer questions about the Settlement, to 4 simplify the filing of claims and to allow anyone to review the important documents relating to the 5 Settlement, including but not limited to the Settlement Agreement, the Court’s Orders, and the Motion
 6 for Final Approval of the Settlement Agreement. (Id.) The long-form Question & Answer Notice form
 7 notice (“Q&A Notice”) will be made available on the Settlement Website. (Id.; see also Exhibit 5, Q&A
 8 Notice.) Upon request, and within a reasonable time after the request, the Claims Administrator will 9 mail the Q&A Notice to each person who calls the Settlement Call Center and requests a copy of the full
 10 notice. (Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, § VIII.C.3.)

11           3. Publication of Notice.

12           To provide additional notice to the Settlement Class Members, including the small number for 13 whom there are no names and addresses, the parties intend to publish notice of the Settlement
 14 Agreement in two (2) consecutive editions of Nevada Legal News, the Las Vegas Review Journal, and 15 the Reno Gazette Journal. (Id. § VII.C.2; see also Exhibit 4, Publication Notice.) The summary notice
 16 shall direct Settlement Class Members to the Settlement Website and will include the toll-free telephone
 17 number for the Claims Administrator running the Settlement Call Center. (Exhibit 1, Settlement
 18 Agreement, § VII.C.2.)

19           4. Toll-Free Number.

20           A toll-free number will be designated by the Claims Administrator for receiving toll-free calls
 21 related to the settlement (the “Settlement Call Center”). (Id. § VII.C.4.) The toll-free number for the 22 Settlement Call Center will be identified in the Direct Mail Notices, the summary notice and the Q&A
 23 Notice. (Id.) Both the toll-free Number and the Settlement Website will permit Settlement Class
 24 Members to obtain information and a copy of the Agreement. (Id. §§ VII.C.3-4.)

25           H. The Claims Process and Award to Settlement Class Members.

26           The Claims process is as simple as the parties can make it. There are three ways a Settlement
 27 Class Member may submit a claim: (1) by calling the Settlement Call Center that will be operated by the 28 Claims Administrator; (2) by submitting a claim in writing by overnight mail to the Claims

1 Administrator; or (3) by submitting a claim online at the Settlement Website maintained by the Claims
 2 Administrator. (Id. § VII.D.) The Settlement Class Members have one hundred twenty (120) days from 3 the date the Direct Mail Notices are mailed to submit a claim. (Id. § I.D.)

4 In order to submit a claim, the Settlement Class Member must provide the following information
 5 about himself or herself: (1) his or her full name; (2) confirmation of his or her identity and cell phone
 6 number pursuant to a procedure determined by the Claims Administrator; (3) the Claim Identification
 7 Number, if he or she received a Direct Mail Notice; (4) his or her current address for mailing settlement
 8 payment; (5) that he or she was the subscriber or the regular user of the cell phone number that was 9 called; and (6) if known, the name of the debtor for whom he/she was listed as a “Reference.” (Id. §
 10 VII.D.) If the Class Member does not know which debtor listed him/her as a reference, then the Class
 11 Member must provide his or her social security number. (Id.) Further, the Settlement Class Member 12 must declare, under penalty of perjury, that all the information provided to the Claims Administrator is 13 true and correct. (Id.) The Class Administrator will approve all timely and valid claims for individuals 14 whom it verifies, through CCCS’s records or other evidence, are Settlement Class Members (an 15 “Approved Claims”). (Id. at § VI.G.)

16 Approved Claims will be awarded a pro rata share of the Total Settlement Pool, less the 17 attorneys’ fees and costs, claims administration cost, and class representative’s incentive award. (Id. §
 18 VI.E.) Each Approved Claim will entitle a Settlement Class Member to a minimum award of seventy 19 dollars ($70.00) and up to a maximum award of fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500.00)—the maximum
 20 amount of damages recoverable for a willful violation of the TCPA. (Id. § VI.E.)

21 The Claims Administrator will send the Settlement Checks via U.S. Mail to the Settlement Class
 22 Members who have made Approved Claims no later than 30 days after the Effective Date, or as soon
 23 thereafter as the Bank Account contains sufficient funds to cover the Settlement Checks. (Id. § VI.G.)

24 I. Scope of Release.

25 The scope of the release by all Settlement Class Members, other than those who exclude 26 themselves from the Settlement Agreement, tracks the scope of Plaintiff’s allegations in the original 27 complaint relating to the prohibition against “the use of an ‘automatic telephone dialing system’” as 28 used in the TCPA. The release also covers known and unknown claims, including NDTPA or any

1 similar state or federal law claims. (Id. at §§ XIII - XIV.) The full release will be made available on the
 2 Settlement Website at the end of the Q&A Notice. (See Exhibit 5, Q&A Notice.)

3 J. Opportunity to Opt-Out and Object.

4 Under the terms of the proposed Settlement Agreement, Settlement Class Members will have the 5 right to opt-out of the Settlement Agreement or to object to its terms. (Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement,
 6 §§ IX, XII.) The deadline for opting-out is ten (10) days after the last date of the Claims Period. (Id. §
 7 IX.) The deadline for objecting is ten (10) days before the Final Approval Hearing date. (Id. § X.)
 8 Settlement Class Members will be informed of these rights through the Direct Mail Notices, the Q&A
 9 Notice on the Settlement Website, the Publication Notice, and information available by calling the Toll-
 10 Free Number. (See Exhibit 3, Direct Mail Notice; Exhibit 4, Publication Notice; Exhibit 5, Q&A 11 Notice.)

12 K. Settlement Proceedings Time Schedule.

13 The settlement proceedings in this matter shall proceed according to the following schedule:

EVENT	SCHEDULED DATE
Direct Mail Notices mailing date	120 days after entry of Preliminary Approval Order
Parties' briefs in support of the Settlement, including fee application and incentive award due	14 days prior to Final Approval Hearing
Last day for Class Members to opt-out of Settlement	130 days after the date the Direct Mail Notices are initially mailed
Last day for objections to the Settlement to be filed with the Court	10 days before the Final Approval Hearing
Last day to submit a Valid Claim Form	120 days after the date the Direct Mail Notices are initially mailed
Parties to file responses to objections, if any	7 days prior to the Final Approval Hearing
Final Approval Hearing	To be determined by the Court

25 L. Termination of Settlement.

26 The Settlement Agreement may be terminated by Class Counsel or Defendants after providing 27 written notice of its election to do so is given to the other party within seven (7) days of any of the 28 following occurrences: (a) the Court's refusal to enter a Preliminary Approval Order; (b) the Court's

1 refusal to approve the settlement following the Final Approval Hearing; (c) the Court's refusal to enter a
 2 Final Approval Order; or (d) if the Final Approval Order is modified or reversed in material respect by 3 any Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court. (Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, § XV.) If either Class
 4 Counsel or Defendants terminate the Settlement Agreement, the Settlement Agreement shall be of no
 5 force or effect and the parties' rights and defenses shall be restored, without prejudice, to their respective 6 positions as if the Settlement Agreement had never been executed. (Id.)

7 M. Payment of Notice and Administration Costs.

8 The costs of notice and claims administration are to be paid from the Settlement Fund. (Id. §
 9 VII.B.) The costs will also include payment of any costs of the Direct Mail Notices, Settlement 10 Website, publication of the summary notice, and claims administration (presently estimated by the 11 Claims Administrator to be approximately $100,000.00), but the final cost will vary depending on a 12 number of factors, including the number of Settlement Class Members and Approved Claims. (See id. § 13 VII.B.) If the costs are less than $100,000.00, the remaining funds shall go towards the Minimum
 14 Aggregate Payout. (Id.)

15 The Settlement Agreement specifically provides that the estimated administration cost and Direct 16 Mail Notices costs estimated at one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) be held in trust by the 17 Claims Administrator. (Id.) The Claims Administrator shall take $100,000.00 from the initial deposit of 18 $600,000.00 deposited by CCCS into the Bank Account for the payment of claims administration costs.
 19 (Id.)

20 N. Class Representative's Application for Incentive Award.

21 The Settlement Agreement provides that Class Counsel will request an incentive award in the 22 amount of $10,000.00 to be paid to the Class Representative, Ronald Grider, subject to Court approval,
 23 within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date. (Id. § XVII.) Defendants have agreed not to oppose a
 24 request for such incentive award in that amount. (Id.)

25 O. Class Counsel's Application for Attorney's Fees and Costs.

26 The Settlement Agreement contemplates that Class Counsel shall be entitled to apply to the 27 Court for an award of attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses to be paid from the Settlement Fund. (Id. § 28 XVI.) Class Counsel shall file an application for attorneys' fees and litigation related costs and

1 expenses in an amount not to exceed thirty-three percent (33%) of the Settlement Fund. (Id.)
 2 Defendants have agreed not to oppose an application by Class Counsel for an award of attorneys' fees,
 3 costs, and expenses as long as it does not exceed thirty-three percent (33%). (Id.)

4 The Settlement Agreement provides that the consideration to be provided to the Settlement Class
 5 Members is not contingent on the attorneys' fees to be awarded. (Id. § XIII.) In other words, the 6 Court's consideration of Class Counsel's application for attorneys' fees and costs is separate from, and 7 will not operate to terminate, the Settlement Agreement and the finality of the Final Approval Order.
 8 (Id.)

9 P. Cy Pres Distribution.

10 If the total amount of paid Approved Claims, class administration costs, and the incentive award
 11 is less than the Minimum Payment ($1,500,000.00), then the difference of the Minimum Payment less 12 paid Approved Claims, class administration costs, and the incentive award will be awarded to the 13 Moment of Truth Ministry.

14 IV. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT SHOULD BE PRELIMINARILY APPROVED

15 A. Standard of Decision.

16 A class action may not be voluntarily dismissed, compromised, or settled without the approval of 17 the Court. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e). In the context of a class settlement reached prior to certification, the 18 District Court evaluates two primary issues: (1) whether conditional class certification for purposes of 19 settlement is appropriate; and (2) whether the proposed settlement is "fundamentally fair, adequate, and 20 reasonable." Staton v. Boeing Co., 327 F.3d 938, 952 (9th Cir. 2003) (internal quotation marks omitted).
 21 As detailed below, conditional class certification is appropriate for the purposes of settlement and the 22 proposed settlement is fundamentally fair, adequate, and reasonable. Accordingly, the Settlement Class
 23 should be conditionally certified and the Settlement Agreement should be preliminarily approved.

24 B. Conditional Class Certification is Appropriate for Purposes of Settlement.

25 "Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, '[a] class action may be maintained if two conditions 26 are met: The suit must satisfy the criteria set forth in subdivision (a) (i.e., numerosity, commonality, 27 typicality, and adequacy of representation), and it also must fit into one of the three categories described 28 in subdivision (b).'" Bateman v. Am. Multi-Cinema, Inc., 623 F.3d 708, 712 (9th Cir. 2010) (quoting

1     Shady Grove Orthopedic Assocs., v. Allstate Ins. Co., 559 U.S. 393, 398 (2010)). The four prerequisites
 2 of Rule 23(a) are stated as follows: “(1) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is 3 impracticable; (2) there are questions of law or fact common to the class; (3) the claims or defenses of 4 the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class; and (4) the representative
 5 parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a).

6         In this case, certification is appropriate under Rule 23(b)(3), which is satisfied if “the court finds 7 that the questions of law or fact common to class members predominate over any questions affecting 8 only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly and 9 efficiently adjudicating the controversy.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). While a court must engage in a 10 rigorous analysis of the Rule 23 factors, an “evidentiary showing need not be extensive.” Kavu, Inc. v.
 11 Omnipak Corp., 246 F.R.D. 642, 646 (W.D. Wash. 2007).

12           1.     The Proposed Settlement Class is Ascertainable.

13         “To obtain class certification, the plaintiff must prove the threshold requirement of 14 ‘ascertainability’—that the proposed class’s membership can be determined by objective criteria.” 15 Kristensen v. Credit Payment Services, 12 F. Supp. 3d 1292, 1302 (D. Nev. 2014) (citing Berger v.
 16 Home Depot USA, Inc., 741 F.3d 1061, 1071 n.3 (9th Cir. 2014)). The proposed class definitions should 17 describe “a set of common characteristics sufficient to allow a prospective plaintiff to identify himself or 18 herself as having a right to recover based on the description” and should not require individualized
 19 inquiries to prospective class members. Id. (internal quotation marks omitted). The class definition may 20 not be based on the merits of individuals’ claims; in other words, “[t]he inquiry into class membership 21 must not require holding countless hearings resembling ‘mini-trials.’” Id. at 1303.

22         Here, the Settlement Class is ascertainable from objective criteria—simply, all references who 23 received calls on their cellular telephones from CCCS on behalf of DLC Nevada. CCCS’s calling
 24 records, which contain the names and telephone numbers of references it has called on behalf of DLC
 25 Nevada, can be utilized to easily identify Settlement Class Members. Because the Settlement Class’s 26 membership can be determined by objective criteria, “the ascertainability requirement is met.”

27         Kristensen, 12 F. Supp. 2d at 1303.

28

1           2. The Proposed Settlement Class Satisfies the Requirements of Rule 23(a).

2           a.       Rule 23(a)'s Numerosity Requirement is Satisfied Because the Settlement Class

3                   Likely Contains More than 10,000 Individuals.

4           The numerosity prerequisite is satisfied if “the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is

5 impracticable[.]” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(1). “Numerosity is presumed at a level of 40 members . . . .”

6 Greene v. Alan Waxler Grp. Charter Servs., LLC, No. 2:09-CV-748-JCM-RJJ, 2012 WL 1330262, at *1

7 (D. Nev. Apr. 17, 2012). The parties estimate that the number of Settlement Class Members is 8 approximately 18,000—which is more than sufficient to satisfy Rule 23(a)(1)’s numerosity requirement.

9 Greene, No. 2:09-CV-748-JCM-RJJ, 2012 WL 1330262, at *1.

10           b.       Rule 23(a)'s Commonality Requirement is Satisfied Because there Are Common

11                   Questions of Law and Fact.

12           The commonality prerequisite requires that “there are questions of law or fact common to the 13 class[.]” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(2). Each plaintiff’s “claims must depend upon a common contention of 14 such a nature that it is capable of classwide resolution—which means that determination of its truth or 15 falsity will resolve an issue that is central to the validity of each one of the claims in one stroke.” Wal-

16 Mart Stores, Inc. v Dukes, 564 U.S. __, 131 S.Ct. 2541, 2545 (2011). “Commonality focuses on the 17 relationship of common facts and legal issues among class members.” Kanawi v. Bechtel Corp., 254

18 F.R.D. 102, 107 (N.D. Cal. 2008). The commonality prerequisite is “construed permissively and not all

19 questions of fact and law need to be common to satisfy this rule.” Parra v. Bashas', Inc., 536 F.3d 975, 20 978 (9th Cir. 2008).

21           Here, for the purposes of settlement, the proposed Settlement Class Members’ claims all stem

22 from the same factual circumstances. Specifically, the proposed Settlement Class Members were all

23 called by CCCS, on their cellular telephones, with equipment that Mr. Grider contends (and the CCCS

24 disputes) constitutes an ATDS. Additionally, the claims present several common questions of law,

25 including: (a) whether CCCS’s equipment is an ATDS; (b) whether CCCS obtained the proposed

26 Settlement Class Members’ prior express consent through a borrower’s listing of the proposed

27 Settlement Class Members’ names and telephone numbers on the borrower’s Credit Application; (c)

1 whether CCCS's conduct was knowing or willful; and (d) whether DLC Empire and DLC Nevada are 2 liable for CCCS's conduct under principles of secondary liability.

3       The commonality prerequisite is satisfied here because the Defendants' conduct caused the same
 4 injury to each class member. See Agne v. Papa John's Intern., Inc., 286 F.R.D. 559, 567 (W.D. Wash.
 5 2012) (finding commonality satisfied in TCPA class action because "all class members were sent 6 substantially similar unsolicited text messages by the same defendants"); Knutson v. Schwan's Home
 7 Serv. Inc., No. 3:12-cv-0964-GPC-DHB, 2013 WL 4774763, at *5 (S.D. Cal. Sept. 5, 2013) (finding that 8 common questions in a TCPA class action included "whether Defendants used an ATDS . . . without 9 the customers' prior express consent" and that "common proof" in the form of "Defendants' business 10 records . . . can answer—in one stroke—each of these questions.").

11                   c.     Rule 23(a)'s Typicality Requirement is Satisfied Because Mr. Grider's Claims
 12                   Arise from the Same Practice and Course of Conduct that Give Rise to the Proposed Settlement Class's Claims.

13       The typicality prerequisite is met if "the claims or defenses of the representative parties are 14 typical of the claims or defenses of the class[.]" Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(3). "The commonality and 15 typicality requirements of Rule 23(a) tend to merge." Gen. Tel. Co. of Sw. v. Falcon, 457 U.S. 147, 158
 16 n.13 (1982). Thus, "[i]n most cases, a finding of commonality will ordinarily support a finding of 17 typicality." Bor Pha v. Yia Yang, No. 2:12-CV-01580-TLN, 2014 WL 654559, at *3 (E.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 18 2014) (internal quotation marks omitted).

19       In deciding whether a representative's claims are typical of the proposed class, courts analyze:
 20 (1) "whether other members have the same or similar injury;" (2) "whether the action is based on 21 conduct which is not unique to the named plaintiffs;" and (3) "whether other class members have been 22 injured by the same course of conduct." Wolin v. Jaguar Land Rover N. Am., LLC, 617 F.3d 1168, 1175
 23 (9th Cir. 2010). "Under the rule's permissive standards, representative claims are 'typical' if they are 24 reasonably co-extensive with those of absent class members; they need not be substantially identical."
25 Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1020 (9th Cir. 1998).

26       First, Mr. Grider's injuries are typical of the proposed Settlement Class. With respect to the 27 TCPA claims, both Mr. Grider and the class members are entitled to statutory damages under the TCPA.
 28 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3). Under the NDTPA, Mr. Grider and the class members all suffered the same

1 injury: an invasion of their privacy and a loss of allotted cellular phone minutes and/or additional
 2 cellular phone charges. (ECF No. 1, Compl. ¶ 201.) Second, the Defendants' conduct is not unique to 3 Mr. Grider. Specifically, all class members, including Mr. Grider, (i) were called by CCCS, (ii) on their 4 cell phones, (iii) as a result of being listed as a reference on a borrower's DLC Nevada credit
 5 application, (iv) in an attempt to locate the borrower for debt collection purposes. Third, the class
 6 members (including Mr. Grider) have been injured by the same course of conduct. That is, the 7 Defendants' conduct resulted in violations of the TCPA and NDTPA in the same manner with respect to 8 all the class members—they were called by CCCS because they had been listed as a reference on a 9 borrower's credit application.

10 In sum, Mr. Grider's claims are typical of all of the proposed Settlement Class Members' claims.

11 See Malta v. Fed. Home Loan Mortg. Corp., No. 10-CV-1290 BEN NLS, 2013 WL 444619, at *3 (S.D.
 12 Cal. Feb. 5, 2013) (finding class representative's TCPA claims were typical where they were based on 13 the same legal theory and "the same factual basis as that of the class: calls made to Plaintiffs using auto-
 14 dialing equipment."); Kristensen, 12 F. Supp. 2d. at 1305 (finding class representatives' TCPA claim 15 typical where defendant engaged in same course of conduct with respect to the class representative and 16 class members).

17 d. Mr. Grider and his Counsel will Fairly and Adequately Represent the Proposed Settlement Class Members.

19 The fourth prerequisite is that, "the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the 20 interests of the class." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(4). Courts analyze two criteria in determining the adequacy 21 of representation: "(1) the proposed representative Plaintiffs do not have conflicts of interest with the 22 proposed class, and (2) Plaintiffs are represented by qualified and competent counsel." Hester v. Vision
 23 Airlines, Inc., No. 209-CV-00117-RLH-RJJ, 2009 WL 4893185, at *5 (D. Nev. Dec. 16, 2009) (internal 24 quotation marks omitted), aff'd, 687 F.3d 1162 (9th Cir. 2012).

25 i. Mr. Grider is an Adequate Class Representative.

26 Here, Plaintiff is an adequate class representative because his claims and interests are identical to 27 those of the class. Mr. Grider and the proposed Settlement Class Members share a common experience:
 28 all were called by CCCS in an attempt to collect on a debt owed to DLC Nevada. Mr. Grider has

1 actively participated in the matter and will continue to vigorously represent the interests of the class
 2 members. (See Exhibit 9, Grider Decl. ¶ 2.) Moreover, Mr. Grider does not have any conflicts of 3 interest with the proposed Settlement Class. (Id. ¶ 3.) Mr. Grider has, and will continue to, adequately
 4 represent the class members. See Kristensen, 12 F.Supp.2d at 1305 (finding that a class representative 5 met the adequacy prerequisite when “there [were] no indications that [plaintiff] has any conflicts of 6 interest, and he appears sufficiently motivated to vigorously pursue the interest of absent class 7 members.”).

8               ii.       Plaintiff's counsel is qualified to serve as class counsel.

9               “Rule 23(a)(4) requires that plaintiffs demonstrate that class counsel is qualified, experienced,
 10 and generally able to conduct the litigation.” Marisol A. v. Giuliani, 126 F.3d 372, 378 (2d Cir. 1997)
 11 (internal quotation marks and citation omitted). The court must consider the following factors in 12 appointing class counsel: “(i) the work counsel has done in identifying or investigating potential claims
 13 in the action; (ii) counsel’s experience in handling class actions, other complex litigation, and the types
 14 of claims asserted in the action; (iii) counsel’s knowledge of the applicable law; and (iv) the resources
 15 that counsel will commit to representing the class.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(g)(1)(A).

16               First, both Bailey❖Kennedy and Haines & Krieger have devoted a significant amount of time
 17 and energy to adequately identify potential claims in this action. (Exhibit 6, Kennedy Decl. ¶ 9; Exhibit
 18 7, Decl. David Krieger [“Krieger Decl.”] ¶ 6.) Second, Bailey❖Kennedy is experienced in class
 19 actions, complex litigation, and consumer law. (Exhibit 6, Kennedy Decl. ¶¶ 10-11.) Haines & Krieger
 20 devotes a substantial amount of its practice to consumer protection litigation and has served as counsel
 21 in seven putative class action matters, including four TCPA putative class actions. (Exhibit 7, Krieger 22 Decl. ¶¶ 3-5.) Third, both Bailey❖Kennedy and Haines & Krieger are knowledgeable in consumer law 23 and have conducted extensive legal research regarding the TCPA and NDTPA. (Exhibit 6, Kennedy 24 Decl. ¶ 10; Exhibit 7, Krieger Decl. ¶¶ 3-5.) Fourth, Bailey❖Kennedy and Haines & Krieger both have 25 the necessary resources to zealously represent the class members and are both prepared to invest the 26 time and resources necessary to adequately serve as class counsel. (Exhibit 6, Kennedy Decl. ¶ 12; 27 Exhibit 7, Krieger Decl. ¶ 7.)

1       Because Mr. Grider is an adequate class representative and has chosen qualified and experienced
 2 counsel, this Court should permit Mr. Grider to act as class representative and allow his selected counsel
 3 to represent the class members. See Hester, 2009 WL 4893185 at *5; see also In re Cavanaugh, 306
 4 F.3d 726, 734 (9th Cir. 2002) (“The choice of counsel has traditionally been left to the parties, whether 5 they sue in their individual capacities or as class representatives.”).

6           3. The Proposed Settlement Class Satisfies the Requirements of Rule 23(b)(3).

7       “In addition to satisfying Rule 23(a)’s prerequisites, parties seeking class certification must show
 8 that the action is maintainable under Rule 23(b)(1), (b)(2), or (b)(3).” Roadhouse v. Las Vegas Metro.
 9 Police Dep’t., 290 F.R.D. 535, 544 (D. Nev. 2013) (quoting Amchem Prods., Inc. v. Windsor, 521 U.S.
 10 591, 614 (1997)). Here, Mr. Grider seeks to certify a Rule 23(b)(3) class.

11       In addition to the general requirements of Rule 23(a), a class must satisfy two additional 12 prerequisites under Rule 23(b)(3); specifically: (i) “that the questions of law or fact common to class
 13 members predominate over any questions affecting only individual members;” and (ii) “that a class
 14 action is superior to other available methods for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy.”
 15 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). Under Rule 23(b)(3), certification “is appropriate whenever the actual interests 16 of the parties can be served best by settling their differences in a single action.” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 17 1022. Moreover, certification under Rule 23(b)(3) is appropriate in matters where class members’
 18 claims have small potential recoveries and “do not provide the incentive for any individual to bring a 19 solo action prosecuting his or her rights.” Amchem Products, Inc., 521 U.S. at 617 (internal quotation 20 marks omitted).

21       As detailed below, the proposed Settlement Class satisfies the additional predominance and 22 superiority requirements.

23           a.       Common Questions Predominate Over Any Individual Questions.

24       “The predominance inquiry of Rule 23(b)(3) asks whether proposed classes are sufficiently 25 cohesive to warrant adjudication by representation.” Stearns v. Ticketmaster Corp., 655 F.3d 1013, 26 1019 (9th Cir. 2011) (internal quotation marks omitted). In contrast to the commonality requirement of 27 Rule 23(a)(2), the predominance inquiry of Rule 23(b)(3) “focuses on the relationship between the 28 common and individual issues.” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1022. “When common questions present a

1 significant aspect of the case and they can be resolved for all members of the class in a single 2 adjudication, there is clear justification for handling the dispute on a representative rather than an
 3 individual basis.” Id. (internal quotations marks omitted). Central to the predominance inquiry is “is the 4 notion that the adjudication of common issues will help achieve judicial economy.” Zinser v. Accufix
 5 Research Inst., Inc., 253 F.3d 1180, 1189 (9th Cir. 2001) (internal quotation marks omitted) opinion
 6 amended on denial of reh’g, 273 F.3d 1266 (9th Cir. 2001).

7 Here, the central inquiry—whether CCCS violated the TCPA by calling the proposed Settlement
 8 Class Members on their cellular telephones without their prior express consent—is a common question
 9 that predominates over individual issues. Although the issue of prior express consent was contested in 10 the matter, for the purposes of settlement, prior express consent is not at issue—lack of prior express
 11 consent is presumed. Further, whether DLC Empire and/or DLC Nevada may be held liable for CCCS’s 12 conduct is a question of law which predominates over individual issues.

13 Accordingly, class certification—for purposes of settlement—is appropriate because when 14 “common questions present a significant aspect of the case and they can be resolved for all members of 15 the class in a single adjudication, there is clear justification for handling the dispute on a representative
 16 rather than on an individual basis.” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1022.

17 b. A Class Action is the Superior Method of Adjudicating the Common Claims of the Settlement Class Members.

19 “The focus of superiority analysis is on the relative advantages of a class action suit over 20 whatever other forms of litigation might be realistically available to the plaintiffs.” Manno v.
 21 Healthcare Revenue Recovery Grp., 289 F.R.D. 674, 690 (S.D. Fla. 2013) (citation and internal 22 quotation marks omitted); see also Valentino v. Carter-Wallace, Inc., 97 F.3d 1227, 1234 (9th Cir. 1996)
 23 (“Where classwide litigation of common issues will reduce litigation costs and promote greater 24 efficiency, a class action may be superior to other methods of litigation.”).

25 “In determining superiority, courts must consider the four factors of Rule 23(b)(3).” Zinser, 253
 26 F.3d at 1190. The four factors are: (A) the class members’ interests in individually controlling the 27 prosecution or defense of separate actions; (B) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning the 28 controversy already begun by or against class members; (C) the desirability or undesirability of

1 concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and (D) the likely difficulties in
 2 managing a class action. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). “A consideration of these factors requires the court to 3 focus on the efficiency and economy elements of the class action so that cases allowed under 4 subdivision (b)(3) are those that can be adjudicated most profitably on a representative basis.” Zinser,
 5 253 F.3d at 1190 (citation and internal quotation marks omitted).

6       Lastly, when deciding to certify a class for settlement purposes, Rule 23(b)(3)(D) is inapplicable;
 7 the Court “need not inquire whether the case, if tried, would present intractable management problems.”
 8 Amchem Products, Inc., 521 U.S. at 620.

9           As detailed below, each of the three applicable superiority factors weighs in favor of 10 certification.

11           i.       The Settlement Class Members’ Interest in Controlling the Prosecution or 12           Defense is Minimal Because each Settlement Class Member’s Damages
are Relatively Small.

13           The first factor is “the class members’ interest in individually controlling the prosecution or 14 defense of separate actions.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3)(A). “Where damages suffered by each putative
 15 class member are not large, this factor weighs in favor of certifying a class action.” Zinser, 253 F.3d at 16 1190. Here, the relatively small amount of damages at stake in a TCPA or an NDTPA action favors
 17 class certification. Kristensen, 12 F. Supp. 2d at 1308 (“The $500 damage amount for each [TCPA]
 18 violation, even if increased to $1,500 for willful violations [of the TCPA], is insufficient to incentivize
 19 individual actions.”); Agne, 286 F.R.D. at 571 (“Five hundred dollars is not sufficient to compensate the 20 average consumer for the time and effort that would be involved in bringing a small claims action
 21 against a national corporation . . .”). Moreover, any class member who wishes to pursue a separate
 22 action can opt-out of the Settlement Agreement. (Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, § IX.)

23           ii.       No Other Known Litigation Exists Between any Settlement Class Member and the Defendants; thus, Class Resolution Serves Judicial Economy.

25           The second factor instructs consideration of “the extent and nature of any litigation concerning
 26 the controversy already begun by or against class members.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3)(B). “This factor 27 is intended to serve the purpose of assuring judicial economy and reducing the possibility of multiple 28 lawsuits.” Zinser, 253 F.3d at 1191 (quoting Wright & Miller, Federal Practice and Procedure § 1780

1 (2d ed.1986)). When the court is unaware of any other pending litigation, the factor weighs in favor of
 2 certification. See Kristensen, 12 F. Supp. 2d at 1308; Agne, 286 F.R.D. at 571. Plaintiff is not aware of 3 any other litigation between a class member and any of the Defendants; the Defendants are likewise not
 4 aware of the existence of other litigation. (Exhibit 6, Kennedy Decl. ¶ 13; Exhibit 7, Krieger Decl. ¶ 8.)
 5 Because there are no similar lawsuits, class resolution is a superior method of adjudicating the instant
 6 claims. See Kristensen, 12 F. Supp. 2d at 1308; Agne, 286 F.R.D. at 571.

7           iii.       The District of Nevada is the Ideal Forum in which to Concentrate the 8           Litigation.

9           The third factor obligates a court to consider “the desirability or undesirability of concentrating
 10 the litigation of the claims in the particular forum.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3)(C). DLC Nevada and 11 CCCS are Nevada entities. (ECF No. 1, Compl. ¶¶ 14, 23.) DLC Empire is a South Dakota entity
 12 headquartered in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. (Id. ¶ 15.) DLC empire is registered with the Nevada
 13 Secretary of State as a foreign corporation authorized to do business in Nevada, and does substantial 14 business in Nevada. (Id. ¶ 16.) Plaintiff is a Nevada resident. (Id. ¶ 9.) Thus, Nevada is the most 15 desirable forum in which to concentrate litigation. See Protectmarriage.com v. Bowen, 262 F.R.D. 504,
 16 509 (E.D. Cal. 2009) (“There appears to be no reason why concentrating the litigation in this Court 17 would be undesirable considering the presence of Defendants within the state . . . .”).

18 C.     The Proposed Settlement Agreement is Fundamentally Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable.

19           Courts may approve class settlements only after holding a hearing and finding that the proposed 20 settlement is “fair, reasonable, and adequate.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2). The decision to approve a class
 21 settlement “is committed to the sound discretion of the trial judge . . . .” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026-27.
 22 The Federal Judicial Center, through its Manual for Complex Litigation (the “Manual”), has developed a 23 defined procedure and specific criteria for approval of proposed class settlement agreements, including
 24 preliminary approval, class notice, and fairness. See MANUAL FOR COMPLEX LITIGATION (Fourth) §
 25 21.6, at 420-4858 (2015).

26           Preliminary approval does not require the Court to make a final determination that the settlement
 27 is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Instead, the Court is only required to make a “preliminary 28 determination on the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of the settlement terms . . . .” Id. § 21.632,

1 at 430. So long as the “proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-
 2 collusive negotiations, has no obvious deficiencies, does not improperly grant preferential treatment to 3 class representatives or segments of the class, and falls within the range of possible approval, then the 4 court should direct that the notice be given to the class members of a formal fairness hearing.” In re
 5 Tableware Antitrust Litig., 484 F. Supp. 2d 1078, 1079 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (internal quotation marks 6 omitted).

7 In making a preliminary fairness determination, courts may consider several factors, including:
 8 “the strength of the plaintiffs’ case; the risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further 9 litigation; the risk of maintaining class action status throughout the trial; the amount offered in 10 settlement; the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings; [and] the experience and 11 views of counsel . . . .” Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026. Courts are to give “proper deference to the private 12 consensual decision of the parties” and their evaluation “must be limited to the extent necessary to reach
 13 a reasonable judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion 14 between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and 15 adequate to all concerned.” Id. at 1027.

16 1. Liability is Highly Contested and Both Sides Face Significant Challenges in Litigating 17 the Matter.

18 The Defendants have vigorously defended the matter and have raised numerous defenses and 19 strongly believe that they would defeat Plaintiff’s attempt to certify a class. (See generally ECF No.
 20 130, DLC Empire Answer; ECP No. 131, DLC Nevada Answer; ECF No. 132, CCCS Answer.)
 21 Plaintiff has vigorously pursued his claims and believes that a class action would be certified. While the 22 parties strongly believe in the relative merits of their positions, the parties also recognize that there are 23 uncertainties in all forms of litigation, let alone complex class actions. (Exhibit 1, Settlement 24 Agreement, ¶ 10.)

25 In considering the Settlement Agreement, Plaintiff and Class Counsel carefully balanced the 26 risks of continuing to engage in protracted and contentious litigation against the benefits to the proposed 27 Settlement Class, including the relatively large Settlement Fund. (See generally, id.) Similarly, the 28 Defendants recognize that if a class is certified and Plaintiff prevails on the merits, they potentially face

1 a higher amount of damages and major disruptions to their business operations. (See generally, id.) The 2 parties face uncertainty, additional costs, and additional fees if the matter continues. The Settlement
 3 Agreement avoids these risks, saves judicial resources, and presents a fair and reasonable alternative to 4 continuing to pursue litigation.

5       2. The Settlement Agreement Provides a Fair and Substantial Benefit to the Proposed 6 Class; Each Settlement Class Member who Submits an Approved Claim is Likely to 7 Receive More than $200.00 and may Receive up to $1,500.00.

8       As set forth above, the CCCS has agreed to pay up to $8,000,000.00 to settle this matter. (Id. §
 9 I.R.) Settlement Class Members will be paid a pro rata share of the Total Settlement Pool, less the
 10 attorneys' fees and costs, claims administration cost, and class representative's incentive award, for their
 11 Approved Claims, with the amount paid for each claim dependent upon the total number of Approved
 12 Claims, but in no case less than $70.00 or more than $1,500.00. (Id. § VI.E.) Even assuming there are 13 25,000 Settlement Class Members (which, as detailed in Section III.A, is likely the highest possible
 14 number) and a claims pool of $5,250,000.00<sup>4</sup>, each Settlement Class Member who has an Approved
 15 Claim would likely be entitled to—at a minimum—approximately $210.00 for an Approved Claim.
 16 Moreover, if the number of Approved Claims fails to meet the Minimum Payment threshold of 17 $1,500,000.00 (the sum of Approved Claims, administration costs, and Mr. Grider's incentive award), 18 then the Settlement Class Members who submit Approved Claims will receive nearly $1,500.00 each—the maximum amount of damages authorized by the TCPA. (Id.)

19       3. The Settlement Agreement was Reached as a Result of Arm's Length Negotiations, 20 Including Three Lengthy Mediations.

21       The Settlement Agreement is the result of over nine months of vigorous arm's length
 22 negotiations, including three lengthy mediation sessions conducted by the Honorable Lawrence R.
 23 Leavitt (Ret.) and the Honorable Carl W. Hoffman—the Magistrate Judge assigned to the Matter.
 24 (Exhibit 6, Kennedy Decl. ¶¶ 3-8.) The time and effort spent on negotiations, including three lengthy 25 mediations, militate in favor of preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement. See in re Toys R Us-
26 Delaware, Inc.--Fair & Accurate Credit Transactions Act (FACTA) Litig., 295 F.R.D. 438, 450 (C.D.

27       <sup>4</sup> $8,000,000.00 less attorneys' fees and costs ($2,640,000.00), administration costs ($100,000.00), 28 and incentive award ($10,000.00).

1 Cal. 2014) (“[C]onsidering the number of mediations held, the court concludes that the settlement is a
 2 product of informed, arms-length negotiations, and is therefore entitled to a presumption of fairness.”);
 3 Ontiveros v. Zamora, 303 F.R.D. 356, 371 (E.D. Cal. 2014) (“[T]he parties’ apparent careful
 4 investigation of the claims and their resolution in consideration of the views of a third party mediator
 5 weigh in favor of settlement.”); see also Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g Corp., 563 F.3d 948, 965 (9th Cir.
 6 2009) (“We put a good deal of stock in the product of an arms-length, non-collusive, negotiated 7 resolution . . . ”).

8       4. Substantial Discovery has been Completed; Prior to Settlement Negotiations, the 9 Parties were Preparing for an Evidentiary Hearing on Plaintiff’s Motion for Class Certification.

10      Class action settlements negotiated after the parties have conducted a substantial amount of 11 discovery are presumptively fair and reasonable. See in re Wireless Facilities, Inc. Sec. Litig. II, 253
 12 F.R.D. 607, 610 (S.D. Cal. 2008) (“Settlements that follow sufficient discovery and genuine arms-length 13 negotiation are presumed fair.”).

14      Here, prior to settlement negotiations, the parties conducted a substantial amount of discovery.
 15 (Exhibit 6, Kennedy Decl. ¶ 2.) Indeed, the parties were prepared to attend an evidentiary hearing on the 16 Plaintiff’s Motion for Class Certification when, one day prior to the hearing, they agreed to the primary
 17 framework of a settlement agreement. (Id. ¶ 5.) The fact that the parties engaged in substantial 18 discovery prior to settlement weighs in favor of preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement. See 19 in re Wireless Facilities, Inc. Sec. Litig. II, 253 F.R.D. at 610.

20       5. Counsel for the Parties—who have Considerable Experience in Complex Class Action
 21 Litigation—have Negotiated a Settlement Agreement that they Believe is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable.

22      Courts give substantial weight to the views of experienced counsel when assessing the fairness of 23 a class action settlement. See Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026; see also Boyd v. Bechtel Corp., 485 F. Supp.
 24 610, 622 (N.D. Cal. 1979) (holding, that although courts “should not blindly follow counsel’s 25 recommendations,” such recommendations should “be given a presumption of reasonableness.”)

26      Here, as detailed above, the parties are represented by counsel with considerable experience in 27 complex class action litigation. Counsel for the parties believe that the Settlement Agreement is fair,
 28 adequate, and reasonable. (Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, ¶ 10.) The views of experienced counsel

1 weigh in favor of preliminarily approving the Settlement Agreement. See Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026; see
 2 also Boyd, 485 F. Supp. at 622.

3 In sum, all of the factors relevant to the Court's preliminary fairness determination militate in 4 favor of a finding that the Settlement Agreement, "taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to 5 all concerned." Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1027. Specifically: (i) the matter is highly contested and all parties
 6 face risk and uncertainty if litigation is continued; (ii) the Settlement Agreement provides a fair and 7 substantial benefit—and likely, an extraordinary benefit—to the proposed Settlement Class Members;
 8 (iii) the Settlement Agreement is the product of vigorous arm's length negotiations, including three 9 lengthy mediation sessions; (iv) substantial discovery was completed prior to the Settlement Agreement;
 10 and (v) counsel for the parties believe that the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

11 D. This Court Should Confirm the Amendment of the Case Caption.

12 In anticipation of a class action settlement, the parties stipulated and Magistrate Judge Hoffman
 13 ordered this matter's title and case caption be changed to correctly identify the current parties since Mr.
 14 Grider is now the only remaining plaintiff in the case and five of the eight defendants have been 15 dismissed from the case. Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court confirm the Magistrate Judge's
 16 Order amending this matter's title and case caption in order to make the class action notices more
 17 reflective of the remaining parties, and to reflect the primacy of CCCS as the only remaining defendant
 18 in the case whom it is alleged made telephone calls in violation of the TCPA. (See ECF No. 221, 19 Stipulation and Order to Amend Case Caption.)

20 E. The Proposed Method of Class Notice is Appropriate.

21 "Adequate notice is critical to court approval of a class settlement under Rule 23(e)." Hanlon,
 22 150 F.3d at 1025. Rule 23(c)(2)(B) provides that, for "any class certified under Rule 23(b)(3), the court
 23 must direct to class members the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances, including 24 individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort."

25 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(B) provides that "the notice must clearly and concisely
 26 state in plain, easily understood language: (i) the nature of the action; (ii) the definition of the class
 27 certified; (iii) the class claims, issues, or defenses; (iv) that a class member may enter an appearance
 28 through an attorney if the member so desires; (v) that the court will exclude from the class any member

1 who requests exclusion; (vi) the time and manner for requesting exclusion; and (vii) the binding effect of
 2 a class judgment on members under Rule 23(c)(3).”

3       Here, the Direct Mail Notices, the Q&A Notice, and publication of the summary notice all
 4 provide the “best notice that is practicable under the circumstances.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B). The 5 notices provide all the information required by Rule 23(c)(2)(B). (See Exhibit 3, Direct Mail Notice;
 6 Exhibit 4, Publication Notice; Exhibit 5, Q&A Notice.) Given the length of the Claims Period—120
 7 days—the notices will give the Settlement Class Members sufficient time to make claims, comment on 8 the Settlement Agreement, or to opt-out of the Settlement Agreement. See Torrisi v. Tucson Elec.
 9 Power Co., 8 F.3d 1370, 1375 (9th Cir. 1993) (approving notice mailed thirty-one (31) days prior to end
 10 of claims period); Marshall v. Holiday Magic, Inc., 550 F.2d 1173, 1178 (9th Cir. 1977) (approving 11 notice mailed twenty-six (26) days prior to end of claims period).

12 F. The Court Should Appoint ILYM Group, Inc. as Claims Administrator.

13       The parties have agreed upon and propose that the Court appoint ILYM Group, Inc. (“ILYM”) to 14 serve as the Claims Administrator. (Exhibit 1, Settlement Agreement, § I.C.) ILYM specializes in 15 providing administrative services in class action litigation and has extensive experience in administering
 16 TCPA class action settlements. (Exhibit 8, Decl. Lisa Mullins, ¶¶ 2-4.) ILYM has been approved as a 17 claims administrator in prior TCPA class action settlements. See Sarabri v. Weltman, Weinberg & Reis
 18 Co., L.P.A., No. 3:10-CV-1777 AJB NLS, 2012 WL 3991734, at *3 (S.D. Cal. Aug. 27, 2012)
 19 (approving ILYM as claims administrator for TCPA class action and noting that “[t]he Special Master is 20 familiar with ILYM Group from prior class actions settlements and has found it to be well qualified and 21 knowledgeable in all facets of class action administration, and can provide exemplary service to counsel
 22 and the class.”), report and recommendation adopted, No. 10CV1777 AJB NLS, 2012 WL 3809123
 23 (S.D. Cal. Sept. 4, 2012); see also Barani v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., No. 12CV2999-GPC KSC, 2014
 24 WL 1389329, at *9 (S.D. Cal. Apr. 9, 2014) (approving ILYM as claims administrator for TCPA class 25 action); Malta, 2013 WL 444619, at *9 (same).

26 G. A Final Approval Hearing Should be Scheduled.

27       The last step in the settlement approval process is the formal Final Approval Hearing or Fairness
 28 Hearing, at which time the Court may hear all evidence and argument, both for and against, the

1 Settlement Agreement in order to evaluate its merits and determine whether it should be approved.
2 Plaintiff requests that the hearing be held at least 60 days after the end of the Claim Period to allow
3 sufficient time for providing: (1) the CAFA Notice,<sup>5</sup> (2) the Direct Mail Notice, and (3) for Settlement
4 Class Members to make claims, to comment on the Settlement Agreement, or opt-out.

5 V. CONCLUSION

6 For all the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court enter an order
7 preliminarily approving the proposed Settlement Agreement, appointing Mr. Grider as Class
8 Representative, and appointing Bailey♦Kennedy and Haines & Krieger as Class Counsel, and 9 appointing ILYM as Claims Administrator.
